

Jim Crisp, CPA, joins Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates

For immediate release: April 21, 2009

Baltimore, MD – Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates, P.A. is pleased to announce that James E. Crisp, CPA, has joined the firm. Crisp, who specializes in providing audit, accounting, tax, operational and reimbursement-related services to healthcare providers and nonprofit organizations, will lead the firm's Healthcare Group.

During his 28-year career in public accounting, Crisp has provided services to nonprofit organizations and long term care facilities, including skilled nursing centers, retirement communities and assisted living facilities, as well as community-based health clinics.

Crisp was a partner in a national accounting and consulting firm prior to joining Gross Mendelsohn. He began his career at Wolpoff & Company.

The Pasadena, Maryland, resident is a graduate of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. He is a member of the Maryland Association of CPAs, American Institute of CPAs, LifeSpan Network and Maryland Association of Nonprofit Organizations. In addition, Crisp is a member of the Health Facilities Association of Maryland and serves on the organization's Member Relations Committee. He has also served on the Board of Trustees and Finance Committee, as treasurer, of the Contemporary Museum of Art.

Gross Mendelsohn is a full-service CPA and consulting firm serving the complete financial needs of privately-held businesses, healthcare providers, nonprofit organizations and families in the Mid-Atlantic region. In addition to offering traditional audit, accounting and tax services, the firm specializes in personal financial planning, litigation support, asset management, business valuation and technology consulting.
