

David Goldner Named Managing Partner of Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates

For immediate release: July 1, 2009

Baltimore, MD – David A. Goldner, CPA, CFP, CVA, was named managing partner of Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates, P.A., a full-service CPA and business consulting firm based in Baltimore, MD, effective today.

Goldner steps into the role held by Lawrence E. McCanna, CPA since 1980. McCanna says of his successor, “One of David Goldner’s biggest strengths is his ability to make creative, sound business decisions. He has served for many years on the firm’s executive committee and will provide the firm and its clients with a seamless transition to the next generation of leaders.”

Goldner has been with Gross Mendelsohn since 1982. As the firm’s new managing partner, Goldner says, “I hope to implement a number of new strategies to capitalize on the firm’s deep service offerings as we continue to raise our position as one of the leading independent locally-owned and managed CPA firms in the Baltimore region.”

This change is significant because it represents the firm’s transition from its first generation of leadership to its next generation. Founded in 1960, the firm is approaching its 50th year of doing business in Maryland. Goldner says, “I plan to continue the rich history of providing the highest quality service as we continue to grow during our second 50 years.”

Goldner’s areas of specialization include tax and financial planning, business valuation and investment planning. In addition to being a CPA, Goldner is a Certified Financial Planner, a Certified Mutual Fund Specialist and a Certified Valuation Analyst. He graduated from the University of Maryland in 1979 with a bachelor’s degree in accounting, and received a master’s degree in taxation from the University of Baltimore in 1983. He serves on the board of directors of the Baltimore Estate Planning Council. In addition, Goldner serves on the investment committees of the Susan G Komen Foundation of Maryland and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Maryland.

Gross Mendelsohn is a full-service CPA and consulting firm serving the complete financial needs of privately-held businesses, nonprofit organizations and families in the Mid-Atlantic region. In addition to offering traditional audit, accounting and tax services, the firm specializes in personal financial planning, litigation support, asset management, business valuation and technology consulting.
