

Gross Mendelsohn partners with Parks & People Foundation to spruce up Sandtown / Winchester neighborhood in Baltimore

For immediate release: June 28, 2010

Baltimore, MD – Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates' staff partnered with the Parks & People Foundation on a community service project in the Sandtown / Winchester neighborhood in West Baltimore.

Thirty-three members of Gross Mendelsohn's staff toiled in the 99-degree heat on Wednesday, June 23 to plant trees, install raised garden beds, plant hundreds of perennials, collect trash and spread mulch around the Sandtown / Winchester Community Center.

Gross Mendelsohn, a Maryland-based CPA firm, is celebrating its 50th anniversary year in 2010 by taking on several large-scale community service projects like the one with Parks & People Foundation. "It's fitting that we celebrate our anniversary with community service," says David Goldner, CPA, CVA, CFP, Gross Mendelsohn's managing partner. "The Baltimore community has supported the firm since 1960. It's only appropriate that we give back to the community, and we can do that by offering a generous amount of volunteerism to organizations that are making a difference in Baltimore."

Gross Mendelsohn is a full-service CPA and consulting firm serving the complete financial needs of privately-held businesses, nonprofit organizations and families in the Mid-Atlantic region. In addition to offering traditional audit, accounting and tax services, the firm specializes in personal financial planning, litigation support, asset management, business valuation and technology consulting.
