

Gross Mendelsohn Renews Lease in Downtown Baltimore

For immediate release: August 19, 2009

Baltimore, MD — Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates, a CPA and consulting firm, recently renewed its lease in downtown Baltimore at 36 South Charles Street. The 50-year-old firm leases approximately 18,000 square feet on floors 18 and 19 of the downtown office tower.

Founded in 1960, the firm has always been headquartered in downtown Baltimore. Gross Mendelsohn's managing partner, David Goldner, CPA, said, "In considering our leasing options, we believed it important to stay in the heart of Baltimore's business district." Adding to Gross Mendelsohn's decision to stay at 36 South Charles was the building operator's ability to accommodate the firm's plans for growth.

Gross Mendelsohn is a full-service CPA and consulting firm serving the complete financial needs of privately-held businesses, nonprofit organizations and families in the Mid-Atlantic region. In addition to offering traditional audit, accounting and tax services, the firm specializes in personal financial planning, litigation support, asset management, business valuation and technology consulting.
