

Local CPA Speaks at Nonprofit Conference

For immediate release: February 7, 2008

Baltimore, MD – Ernie Paszkiewicz, CPA, presented “What a Nonprofit Organization Needs to do to Comply with SAS112” at a conference for nonprofit professionals.

The January 29, 2008 conference, “Don’t Get Stunned When the Audit Report Comes,” was sponsored by the Maryland Association of Nonprofit Organizations and the Maryland Association of CPAs. The sold-out conference was designed to help those involved in the day-to-day financial activities of a nonprofit organization understand how to deal with new accounting rules.

Paszkiewicz is a partner at the CPA and management advisory firm of Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates, and is a member of firm’s Nonprofit Consulting Group.

Gross Mendelsohn is a full-service CPA and consulting firm serving the complete financial needs of privately-held businesses, nonprofit organizations and families in the Mid-Atlantic region. In addition to offering traditional audit, accounting and tax services, the firm specializes in personal financial planning, litigation support, asset management, business valuation and technology consulting.
